Senior Championships

Bidgee Bulls will take on Illawarra in the Senior Championships Grand Final this Saturday 30th May 2009 at Kippax Oval, West Belconnen.

From there the Country representatives across the Senior Championships will be selected to take on the Queensland Maroons on July 11th in Forster.

UPDATE

Please be advised the Under 13/14s Clusters due to take place in Grafton last weekend have been postponed due to flooding. They will now be played on Saturday July 18th at McKittrick Park, Grafton.

Development Officer of the Week

Congratulations to Far North Coast Development Officer Mike Donnelly who has worked under extreme pressure and has still managed to run his Titans Challenge in the flood affected areas.

Will your club join the Call To Arms

Please register now for the Cancer Council's Call To Arms and help us tackle cancer.

Call To Arms calls on sports clubs of all levels and all codes to wear yellow armbands one match in July to save the lives of men throughout Australia. By joining Call To Arms you'll help raise awareness of men's cancers and help raise funds for Cancer Council.

Taking part is easy;

Register your club either online or by calling our events hotline 1300 65 65 85.

1. Choose a match anytime in July to be your Call To Arms game.
2. Encourage your club, team members and spectators to raise funds. Once registered, Cancer Council will send you a kit with everything you need to hold your Call To Arms event e.g. Yellow tape, donation boxes, posters etc. You can start fundraising right away, and rally your club to wear yellow armbands in a match in July to raise funds.

Competitions

Any club registered, that raises more than $1000 and banks by the 28th August could win a Strength and Conditioning session with an expert trainer. Check out www.calltoarms.com.au/why-support/competitions for more details and terms & conditions.

If you would like to find out further information about Call To Arms visit the website www.calltoarms.com.au.

Pink Shorts Day 2009

Congratulations to Woolgoolga RLFC who have for the last 2 years has had a "pink shorts" day for cancer. Last year they raised over $1500 on that day and it was all donated to Breast Cancer. Woolgoolga had another "pink shorts" day planned for their home game against Sawtell last Sunday, however that game was washed out and is rescheduled for the end of the season. Your hard work and dedication to charities is to be commended.
