Butcher Girls Swap their Blue and White Strips for Dragons Pink V

Thirroul JRLC Mums are strong supporters of the Crystal Bears WIL program. Proudly known as the Bee Gees (Butchers Girls), they traded in their blue and white stripes for a day and donned the Dragons Pink V in support of the Joanne Mackay Breast Cancer Foundation. On Sunday 14 June the Crystal Bears WIL held a pre-game function at the Steelers Club, where all money raised will go towards the foundation. Melissah Gervaise, Crystal Bears General Manager and Bee Gee, advised that the function was a huge success with 125 ladies attending in its 6th year. 'We have broken all records this year, thanks to the support of the ladies in the Illawarra. We are hoping it will continue to grow. The function had a pink theme to tie in with the Dragons wearing their Pink V jerseys and included a high tea, pink champagne and pink cocktails. The Ladies were treated to hair and make-up, tarot and palm readers and all received a complimentary gift bag. Items for sale included Pink V T shirts, Pink STGI hoodies, pink scarves and assorted pink jewellery with all proceeds also going towards the Joanne Mackay Foundation. This year saw the Butchers represented by more than 25 women at the Ladies Day, in what was the NRL official Women in League Round. URGENT!

Please be advised there has been a change of venue due to heavy rain and washout grounds throughout the Central Coast and Newcastle. The finals of the 15/16s Junior Championships will now be held at Tomaree Sports Ground at Nelson Bay. The games will be pushed back one hour. With the first game kicking off at 10am.

Bateman's Bay Reunion

The Batemans Bay Tigers had a very successful reunion on the long weekend with all but a few of the 1979 Premiership winning First Grade side turning up. Players turned up from the Sunshine Coast, Gold Coast, Griffiths, West Wyalong, Camden and Grenfell as well as local. This was a great weekend high lighted by the appearance of First Grade Coach Mal Cheney who is not in good health.
