WIN TV Support Western Rams

Western Rams Rugby League chairman Peter McDonald has announced WIN Television as the region's major sponsor for the 2009 season.

Under the agreement WIN Television will be afforded various promotional benefits including naming rights to the inaugural pre-season competition, which will be known as the WIN Television Challenge.

McDonald said the competition involving Group 10 and 11 clubs along with a representative side from the Castlereagh is expected to generate great interest from league followers.

"We are very grateful for WIN Television's generous support and we look forward to working with them in promoting their product through this unique and highly anticipated competition," said McDonald. Apart from sponsoring the new competition WIN TV are also supporting the Western Rams tilt at the Country Rugby League Regional Championships.

The WIN TV Challenge kicks off on March 7 running through until March 28. Following this the representative season will kick off with four games at Narromine on April 4.

Toohey's New Group 10 will square off with Toohey's New Group 11 in 1st grade, under 23s and under 18s while the talented teenagers from the Far West Academy will meet the Central West Academy in the first hit out of the day.

The CRL under 18s regional championship commences on April 18 and 19, with the Western Rams hosting the opening two rounds of the tournament at Parkes' Pioneer Oval.
