Hunter Valley Group 21 Development Camp

The Hunter Valley Group 21 Development Camp is taking place this weekend at Liddell Power Station through the generosity of Group 21 sponsor – Macquarie Generation. The annual camp which has been an important part of the Group 21 calendar for over a decade comprises of a First Aid Officers course, a Modified Games Coaching Course, an International Games Coaching Course, an Administration Seminar, a Mini League clinic, a Mod League clinic and an International Rules clinic. The camp will run from Friday evening through to Sunday afternoon on the shores of Lake Liddell and will see CRL and ARLD staff from the Central Hunter, Newcastle and Oxley Regions along with Newcastle Knights Development personnel come together to deliver the courses and run the clinics. Executives from the Hunter Valley Group 21 Rugby League in Lynn Hamm and Mark Bayley will look after the catering for all the participants and the staff while Group 21 Refereeing legend, "Hollywood" Rod Bowd will deliver a presentation on the laws of rugby league. The camp will continue the good work the Group 21 Coaching Panel has been renowned for over many years.
